

Conversational English Class Volunteer

Duties and Responsibilities:

The conversational English class program assists in guiding English language learners toward gaining proficiency in listening and speaking. After participating in a short lesson led by the lead teacher, volunteers work with students one-on-one or in small groups, using a textbook or other materials that BIIN provides.

Activities include:

- Engage with everyone present before the lesson starts.
- Follow the lead teacher's instructions during the initial part of the lesson. Help model correct use and pronunciation as requested by the instructor.
- Learn students' names, when working one-on-one or in small groups.
- Help students practice what they learned in the lesson.
- Share with the lead teacher and/or interns any useful information about how the students you were helping did, questions that came up, etc.

Qualifications:

- You speak English fluently. The ability to speak or understand Spanish is a bonus but is not required.
- A positive attitude and patience are a must.
- You are sensitive to cultural differences and open to different values/beliefs.
- Good communication skills.
